Dear Vendor,

Going Beyond the Pink is a compassionate breast health and education organization dedicated to empowering breast cancer patients and survivors with knowledge and support so they can thrive through treatment into survivorship. Since 2017, we have provided direct supportive services to over 500 breast cancer patients in New Hanover, Brunswick, and Pender Counties. In addition, we've supplied over 1,600 practical care bags to newly diagnosed patients, provided over $90,000 in financial assistance for out-of-pocket medical costs, and have robust attendance in our in-person and virtual health and wellness workshops and education hub. We truly are a trusted source for support and education in the breast cancer community.

This year, Going Beyond the Pink is excited to announce its inaugural Pose for Pink Fashion Show Fundraiser. Survivors, caregivers, and supportive community members are hitting the runway to showcase the hottest fall looks and glamorous formal wear. And, thanks to our Presenting Sponsor, Brookfield Properties Independence Mall, they'll take center stage at center court in an exclusive after-hours event.

We're excited for you to join us at this inspirational, uplifting event. Come out to cheer on the models and stay to shop exclusive vendors and celebrate the resilience and strength of our local breast cancer community.

To learn more about Going Beyond the Pink and the services we offer, or if your company is interested in being a vendor at Pose for Pink, please contact our Executive Director, Kara Kenan at 910-667-2111 or at kara@goingbeyondthepink.org.

We look forward to partnering with you in this important event.
